

NEW TO GCC
FOR 2017-18—

Men Touring the College Experience: Mentoring Men of Color

A GCC STUDENT EQUITY MENTORING PROGRAM

GOALS:

- Increase retention and persistence among African-American and Latino males
- Bond of brotherhood among men of color
- Academic support; professional and educational growth

THINGS WE OFFER:

- Safe place for meetings where you can talk about real issues
- A lead mentor who will genuinely care and listen to you
- Free food at mentoring meetings
- Inspirational guest speakers
- Field trips to events specific to men of color
...and much more—we're just getting started!

EACH SEMESTER, YOU MUST:

- Attend at least 2 of our mentoring meetings
- Keep an open mind and avoid defensiveness
- Maintain at least a 2.0 GPA
- Be enrolled in at least 6 units in college*
- Submit a progress report of how you are doing in your classes*
- Update your Student Educational Plan (SEP) with a counselor*

*You've already met some of these requirements if you fulfilled it with another counselor/program.

An invitation will automatically be sent to Black Scholars and La Comunidad male students. All others must sign up on the interest list in the Student Equity office at San Rafael (SR) 221. Eligible students will be notified of mentoring meeting dates & location.

Glendale Community College, Student Equity office (818) 240-1000 ext. 3520