 - Our second educational initiative was last November 19; it was very good, and thanks to those who helped organize it.
 - This event was very important for those people who do not have much support because they are undocumented people and immigrants who have just arrived in the country and do not have much knowledge about the help that exists for people who are in these situations.

 - On November 27, we will host our educational initiative.
 - IX. Report of Activities Committee – Iren Abelian
 - Yesterday, November 21, we had our second event of the month, Paws for Yoga. It was a very successful event; many people attended.
 - On Monday we will have a discussion about our executive offices because some senators do not have respect for our private spaces.

We are already making presentations about the student government and about what we do. All the presentations at the moment are going very well in the classrooms.

XVII. Reports of Advisors

- Claudia Juan

- A senator will receive her first absence warning letter from Pacheco.
- In the interviews to recruit new senators for spring, the executive members must be sure that the new senators and all members of the student government have time on Mondays from 1:00 to 3:00 pm and likewise on Wednesdays. No one should be accepted without time at that time because they cannot miss classes or leave our meetings early due to conflicting times.
