

College Closure Update and Student Support for January 9th - 10th

Wed 1/8/2025 5:03 PM

Dear GCC Students,

Our thoughts are with all those impacted by the devastation of the local fires. Many of our students and employees have been displaced, suffered significant losses, and more. We understand this is a difficult time and are here to support you. The following update provides information regarding the status of the college during this tragic event, including details on continuity of Winter 2025 classes.

College Status

A state of emergency remains declared for GCC and the surrounding area. Campus is closed through Friday, January 10, 2025. This closure may need to be extended depending on conditions. Regular updates on the college's status will be communicated through Nixle, college email, and at glendale.edu/fires. Additionally, *if you are in need of mental health support, you have FREE access anytime through TimelyCare 24/7.

The College Emergency Operation Center (EOC) will continue to diligently assess risk to determine when our campuses can be safely open.

Classes

Online classes will continue as scheduled. For Thursday 1/9/25 and Friday 1/10/25, classes scheduled for in-person instruction will, to the extent possible, be offered in a remote environment (Zoom). that may enable you to continue or resume work during this period.

Please continue to check your GCC email for updates regularly regarding college operations.

Please take care of yourselves and stay safe.
