

EOPS SPRING 2026 UPDATE

Belong • Believe • Become

To better support students in reaching their goals, EOPS is making some updates to how counseling for students is organized this spring.

YOUR DEDICATED EOPS COUNSELOR

- You will have one dedicated EOPS counselor, assigned by your last name.
- All EOPS appointments will be with your assigned counselor.
- Your counselor will work with you throughout your time in EOPS.

Last name A-BAD Ana Boduryan	Last Name BAG - FOW Andrine Dilanchian	Last Name FR - HEV Edith Azizian	Last Name HID - MAN Hasmik Grigoryan
Last Name MAR - NAZ Jessica Alvarez	Last Name NER - SHA Nicholas Bravo	Last Name SHE - Z Rosette Aghekian

YOUR THREE CONTACTS

- Contact #1 - Thirty-Minute In-Person Counseling Appointment
(If you are a fully online student, this appointment may be on Zoom.)
- Contact #2 - Counseling Appointment or Drop-In Counseling
- Contact #3 - Appointment, drop-in, or an EOPS event.
Events include group counseling, workshops, or EOPS programs

We will do our best to remind you to make all three contacts, but It is your responsibility to proactively schedule and complete all three required contacts each semester. We encourage you to plan early, stay in touch with our office, and reach out if you need help scheduling your three contacts.

Our goal is to create strong connections, shared expectations, and consistent support for every student. If you have questions your EOPS team is here for you.
